

Masthead Logo

The Iowa Review

Volume 14

Issue 2 Spring-Summer: *Writing From the World:
Selections from the International Writing Program 1977-1983*

Article 23

1984

Force of Circumstance

Jose Lacaba

Follow this and additional works at: <https://ir.uiowa.edu/iowareview>

Part of the Creative Writing Commons

Recommended Citation

Lacaba, Jose. "Force of Circumstance." The Iowa Review 14.2 (1984): 66-67. Web.
Available at: <https://doi.org/10.17077/0021-065X.3016>

This Contents is brought to you for free and open access by Iowa Research Online. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Iowa Review by an authorized administrator of Iowa Research Online. For more information, please contact lib-ir@uiowa.edu.

Jose Lacaba · Philippines

FORCE OF CIRCUMSTANCE

When Maritess was kidnapped by the son of a congressman, the stars flickered
like fireflies
and the moon was full.

When Maritess was taken to Novaliches,
the wind was dancing
with the tall grass
and the cicadas
whistled insistently.

Four members of his gang accompanied
the son of a
congressman
in his new Mustang
And Maritess looked like Susan Roces.

When the gang ripped off the expensive pantsuit
that a gay couturier
had made for Maritess, an earthquake was rocking Manila and the kids were demonstrating at the Embassy.

When the gang caressed the panties of Maritess and pulled out her Tampax, tear gas was crawling on the streets of Sampaloc and Susan Roces was recommending Lux soap on TV.

Four members of his gang
accompanied
the son of a
 congressman
in the midst of the tall grass and five young men mounted Maritess.

And when the five young men had vented their hot blood on the bleeding will
 of the ex-virgin, they lighted imported cigarettes and burned the pubic hair of Maritess.

Four members of his gang
accompanied
the son of a
 congressman
in his new Mustang
and Maritess now looked like Bella Flores.

When Maritess was released by the son of a
 congressman,
her boyfriend got drunk, the papers shivered with glee and the cops jerked themselves off.

Mr. Congressman is set to run in the coming elections.
Let us not forget him.

THE SACRED PASSION OF ST. JOSEPH

Chisel, plane, and hammer, listen, I'll whisper
my bitter secret: though I've never whatchamacallit her, my girlfriend's pregnant.